Designer Collections at Mode

Season after season, buyers across the country come to the Mode Accessories Show to find exclusive, in-demand fashion items for their stores. For the Spring/Summer 2014 season, the show will be featuring exciting designer lines such as Ayala Bar, Bernie Mev, Christopher Kon, Two A, Karen Wilson, Zsiska; Canadian and International collections that are first-class chic. Register now to attend, January 26-28, 2014, at the International Plaza Hotel (formerly Doubletree by Hilton), Toronto. To register, go to www.mode-accessories.com.

SS14 Fashion Notes

There's no question that handbags and jewellery anchored the accessory market in recent years. But hosiery was the breakout fashion statement on SS14 runways.

Emporio Armani, WWD.

Legwear stole the show with options to satisfy every key trend of the coming season. Sheers were back - in pastels, neons, florals, and novel prints. Vibrant opaques, geometric patterns, lace, metallics, leather; the choice was endless. Layering created novel combinations and colour blocking. Socks were chic in sheers, sport stripes and tubes.

Here's what to look for in other accessories:

Handbags - structured or bucket shapes in top handle styles, envelope clutches, messengers, satchels and duffel styles.

Jewellery - oversize is the way to go, bibs, collars, brooches and pendants. Cuffs are ubiquitous. Resin in clear, colours, or geo patterns. Try tortoise shell's warm glow.

Eyewear - round white, pastel or colour frames; tortoiseshell a sophisticated alternative. Cat-eye still popular.

Hats - headwraps and kerchiefs, baseball caps, visors.

Scarves - digital prints, novelty, floral, geometrics, checks, and gingham.

Flexible, light weight, avant garde - Bernie Mev - master of the woven footwear. Catch the collection at The Dressing Agency, Booth 419, Area 1.

Ayala Bar, a celebration of multi-coloured patterns, peeking through transparent crystals. Collection at Kareri, Booths 400, Area 1.

Key trends to keep in mind:

Graphic - black/white, black/colour, colour blocking, modern mod, cutouts and perforations.

Florals - petite flowerettes to lush tropical blooms; butterflies and dragonflies too.

Bras/Bandeaus - peeking through sheer tops or on their own.

Digital Prints - accessories have gone digital

Athletics - from gym to varsity, sport-chic

Sheer - fashion demands transparency too

Shine - ultimate shine in mirrored finishes

Honey Glow - mellow gold tones like tortoiseshell are elegant alternative to snakeskin or leopard

If you can't make it to Paris, try one of these around your neck. Digitally printed postcards and vintage photos on scarves from Kemi Trading, Booth 3205, Area 3. See them at Mode Accessories for show specials.

Christopher Kon

What sets Christopher Kon's design apart is his endless pursuit to find the balance between clean, timeless shapes and that differentiating edge. Christopher's inspiration is drawn from aspects that shape his life; his love for surfing, traveling, painting and playing music. Using the best hand-selected Italian and Spanish skins, Christopher creates new silhouettes with luxurious feel; bags of the highest quality and value, current, yet age beautifully. His passion for designing handbags has been second nature to him from a very young age. This combination of passion and inspiration are all demonstrated through his remarkable pieces season after season. See Kon's collection at Denise Martin Agencies, Booth 1904, 2101, Area 2.

Zsiska

Zsiska, the unique designer jewellery brand, which made its first appearance in Canada a year ago, is already a big success story. The colourful designs, known for their classic and trendy fusion concept, captivated the heart and fashion sense of the local audience. Reorders are exceptionally high. Zsiska is inspired by the hottest fashion trends and colours. The handmade collection offers a unique statement for a fashionista or a confident classic woman. The pieces are innovative and stunningly beautiful, with very reasonable price points. The resin line combines precious metal components, hand-painted beads, Swarovski crystals or knotted satin cord. See the collection at Belladonna, Booth 506, Area 1. Be sure to ask for the show special.

The Shelley Line

The Shelley Line started in 2009 in Nanaimo, British Columbia. The owners, Shelley Craig and Mark Goldsbury, wanted to build a business that combined their love of jewellery, with the ability to provide luxurious one-of-a-kind fashion that was not only affordable but had the highest level of craftsmanship. Their vision was to design, manufacture and wholesale contemporary accessories to boutique-style retail stores in North America. Focusing on eye-popping designs that would make any woman take notice, The Shelley Line and Legends by Shelley collections have something for everyone; from classic to trendy, contemporary to cosmopolitan. All pieces are lead free, rhodium plated and hand-made, created in a rich palette designed for a specific season. Featuring Czechoslovakian crystals, fancy ceramic, porcelain and glass pearls from around the world, Italian leather or distinctive charms, all are finished with The Shelley Line signature logo'd charm on the clasp. View this line at The Dressing Agency, Booth 419, Area 1.

Parkhurst

Parkhurst hats inspire you to wake up in the morning and put one on as a matter of course – you are not completely dressed until you have a Parkhurst hat on! Protect yourself from the sun's harmful rays. This season, Parkhurst offers a variety of styles with attitude and sunguard protection, from beret, cloches, peaks, to boho kerchiefs. There are packable styles perfect for travel.

Parkhurst is one of the last North American knitwear companies in existence. Since 1926, Parkhurst has designed and manufactured fashionable, high quality sweaters, accessories and outerwear. Based in Toronto, Canada, Parkhurst products are available at better retailers throughout the world. We all wish there were more manufacturers in North America and many more companies that could provide employment and opportunities. Visit Parkhurst at their new location at Booth 519, Area 1.

Peru Producton

Two A

Two A is a beautifully eccentric jewellery line that seamlessly combines organic eco-materials with industrial metals to create a striking and fresh spin on Bohemian-Chic. Long time friends and designers Ayana Fishman and Anat Shapira turned a simple idea inspired by both the serene Mediterranean seashores and the bustle of the urban city into an accessory collaboration that immediately became an international success.

Grounded in simplicity in design, minimalism in form, and strength in repetitive patterns, the design duo fashioned a unique look that perfectly compliments both everyday and high fashion styles. TwoA defines anew the meaning of young urban elegance. Two A Canada Inc. is located at Booth 2205, Area 2.

Michal Negrin

Live the fantasy with rings galore from Michal Negrin's new "Age of Glory" collection. Find the fabulous selection at Kareri, Booth 319, Area 1.

A Slice of the North

Matachewan artist Wendy Stanwick fashions slices of drill core samples into jewellery. The new 2014 Northern Spring Collection has 4 shapes: vase, fan, petal and round. Delicate hand drawn pussy willows embellish each unique reversible piece. See this unique Canadian-to-its-core line at Booth 2202, Area 2. (In 2010, Stanwick was commissioned by the Canadian government to design gifts for the spouses of the G8 and G20 summits.)

Lune Argent

At Lune Argent, Booth 133, Area 1, the mission is to provide retailers with silver jewellery of quality that creates passion with their clientele. This is high-end jewellery, refined, elegant and modern, intended for the active and professional woman. Made from silver 950, with the assurance that no nickel is in the composition, eliminating allergy problems. Only natural stones and shells from South Pacific are used.

Karen Wilson

Karen began her career as a medical laboratory technologist working in pharmaceutical research. Fast forward several years and three daughters makes a family of five. Rather than returning to work in the same field, she decided to explore her creative side and "Karen Wilson Handbags" was born. The trendsetting line is noted for unique textures, patterns, accents and colour- many with a vintage-inspired look. The handbags are made in Canada in limited quantities to keep them exclusive.

Launched in the Fall of 2012 was a line of hand waxed canvas and leather bags. It was inspired by Karen's maternal grandfather, Clair Audrey Parkinson, or "CAP", as he was called. CAP worked for the Canadian Pacific Railway during WW II, and was stationed at Camp Borden. Many young men passed through that camp on their way overseas, all carrying some kind of canvas bag; maybe a duffel or a type of backpack. Handwritten names, numbers and markings on these canvas bags told their individual stories.

In recognition of this time in our history, CAP Bags are all made from hand waxed canvas and leather with hand lettered names and limited edition numbers. Lined with a black/white railway or "ticking stripe", the bags have a weathered vintage look that only improves with wear. Wilson is excited to add these heritage pieces to her collection. We think "Papa" would be proud! Karen Wilson Handbags can be found at Denise Martin Agencies, Booth 1904, Area 2.

Simon Chang

Simon Chang scarves will be at Mode Accessories along with a completely new line of Simon Chang jewellery. Showing for Spring, as a first and a must-see, the exclusive digitally printed, double sided silk blend scarf! Priced to sell, this is the most affordable line of Simon Chang scarves ever. You too can become a retailer of the highly acclaimed Canadian designer and enhance your store with this fabulous line. See the whole line at Booth SL13, Area 1, or online at www.christinac.ca.

Whitelotus Design

Contemporary handmade jewellery for a thoroughly modern girl. Whitelotus Design features sculptural wire-woven gemstone necklaces, earrings and cuff bracelets all handcrafted using time-honoured skills. The line is created in a small luminous studio where it is designed, fabricated and finished by Edina, the designer who transforms material such as silver wire, sheet metal, stones and glass into wearable art. Appearing for the first time at Mode Accessories, Whitelotus Design is located at Booth 1205, Area 1.

Retailer's Choice Award

Buyers cast their ballots for the best exhibitor in the Mode Accessories Show. Passion (Booth 2600, 2604) was the winner of the August 2013 Show. Honourable mention goes to Pinkstix and Sherson Group (Nine West). The lucky buyer to win the free night stay at the hotel was Candis Bloski of Details At Home in Saskatoon. Remember to cast your ballot at the upcoming show and you may be the next lucky winner!

Only Accessories

Only Accessories brings you the latest in fashion jewellery and accessories. The Barbara Collection doesn't follow but creates trends. From ready-to-wear casual to sophisticated evening, we have pieces for all occasions. See all their lines at Booth #111, Area 1.
